People in the past didn't go to the beach very often. My grandfather still remembers his first day there. It was in 1950 and he was only six years old. His parents didn't have a car so they went there by train. They arrived in a beach near Brighton.

It was a beautiful sunny day. My grandfather was very excited. He didn't know how to swim and he didn't have a swimsuit, but he wanted to go into the sea. So he played in the water with his clothes on.

The beach had lots of sand and chips. They stayed on the beach all day and went home in the evening. My grandfather was very tired but he was happy.

The Man by the Lake

Last week, I went camping with my mom, Lani, and Jaiden. We went to Mount Forester for the weekend. We only stayed a great time, so we stayed for a quick weekend. On the last day, a strange thing happened. We were camping about the middle when we saw a terrible lake. We decided to spend the night there, so we set up our tent. In the evening, we felt very tired so we all went to bed early.

However, after a while I heard a man talking. I got out of the tent and saw a young man sitting by the lake. When he saw me, he ran into the water. I saw my friend go and he all jumped into the water. Hearing, we were getting ready to leave when I heard him say "Wait!" I thought, but the man started to run.
